INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. NUMBER OF EXEMPTIONS—Do not claim more than the correct number of exemptions. However, if you have unusually large amounts of itemized deductions, you may claim additional exemptions to avoid excess withholding. You may also claim an additional exemption if you will be a member of the Kentucky National Guard at the end of the year. If you expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld, you may increase the withholding by claiming a smaller number of exemptions or you may enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld. If you claim more than 10 exemptions this information is sent to the Department of Revenue.
- 2. CHANGES IN EXEMPTIONS—You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions INCREASES.

You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES for any of the following reasons.

- (a) You are divorced or legally separated from your spouse for whom you have been claiming an exemption or your spouse claims his or her own exemption on a separate certificate.
- (b) The support of a dependent for whom you claimed exemption is taken over by someone else, so that you no longer expect to furnish more than half the support for the year.
- (c) Your itemized deductions substantially decrease and a Form K-4A has previously been filed.

OTHER DECREASES in exemption, such as the death of a spouse or a dependent, do not affect your withholding until the next year, but require the filling of a new certificate by December 1 of the year in which they occur.

- 3. DEPENDENTS—To qualify as your dependent (line 4 on reverse), a person (a) must receive more than one-half of his or her support from you for the year, and (b) must not be claimed as an exemption by such person's spouse, and (c) must be a citizen of the United States, or a resident of the United States, Canada, or Mexico, or (d) must have lived with you for the entire year as a member of your household or be related to you as follows:
- your child, stepchild, legally adopted child, foster child (if he lived in your home as a member of the family for the entire year), grandchild, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law;
- your father, mother, or ancestor of either, stepfather, stepmother, father-inlaw, or mother-in-law;
- your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law;
- your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece (but only if related by blood).

4. PENALTIES—Penalties are imposed for willfully supplying false information or willful failure to supply information which would reduce the withholding exemption.

Form W-4 (2008)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2008 expires February 16, 2009. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. You cannot claim exemption from withholding if (a) your income exceeds $900 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on their tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances adjustments to income, or two-earner/multiple job situations. Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding, for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances. Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 919 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 919 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see the Instructions for Form 8233 before completing this Form W-4.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the dollar amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2008. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).
